From the collection of Official Skyrim Mods [OSM] the Dremora lord save and video attached This game-save has taken 3 months to construct with multiable day & nights being spent attempting to create said save.. ) the new version will have more modded towns, cities, NPCs available for marriage and to be followers, some npcs that are dead in the current version will be resurrected in the now one! ^_^, the save will come with many different characters to select, males, females, and maybe even a CHILD Race!!!!!!(currently there is not even one play as a child race save).. Edit: added more info to OP And Here are the 2 more video parts showing all the saves, Just watch them to see what saves got what mods, but once you load them most of the time the modded stuff will be right in front of you so just look for it.. The program creates a file called 'save_edit.txt' on your desktop, callable by console (using 'bat save_edit') that will modify your character as you wanted.. And they really are all the best of the best ^_^ anyways will collect as much info as i can and just put it in the OP.
